

Reciprocal perception

Two colleagues meet for the first time...

...what might be their thoughts about each other? What does the animal at the top say about the animal on the left side?

	Falcon about ...	Goat about ...	Deer about ...	Panther about ...
	Super, it is fast as lightning and very precise ...	It is way too fast for me ...	How brave it is!	Why does it go hunting alone instead of hunting in packs?
	Why does it grumble again?	Finally someone understands why things do not work that way ...	Why does it make things so hard for itself - maybe I can help?	Why doesn't it see the different perspectives?
	Why is it so tentative and emotional?	I like it, it's really nice ...	That's pleasant, I feel comfortable with that.	Why is it so cautious?
	It appears to be strong - or is it a do-gooder?	It's daring - my respect for that! It also frightens me.	I think it might be able to protect me ...	There should be more of these ...
